

SSR Policy

Consultation Services

Purpose:

This policy regulates the Society's response to requests for consultations, official comments, scientific reviews, reviews of published or presented material, legal opinions, or any similar matters.

Policy:

The Society does not provide consultations, official comments, scientific reviews, reviews of published or presented material, or legal opinions and does not keep or provide a list of members who do so.

Society members may not use their affiliation as an official or unofficial credential when rendering a medical or legal opinion.
